

LiMPETS Rocky Intertidal Trivia

ACROSS

5. Many mollusks use their file-like tongue, or _____, to scrape food off of rocks.
6. These algae are balloon-like and filled with water.
9. Number of National Marine Sanctuaries.
10. This bumpy red algae is called Turkish _____.
12. This algae looks as though it is coated in oil because of its rainbow like sheen.
14. Number of plates on a chiton.
15. Flowering grass sensitive to pollution.
17. The 2 types of green algae that LiMPETS monitors are green pin-cushion algae and _____.
18. This black, encrusting alga is a different life phase of your answer to 10 across.
19. The area between the reach of the highest high tide and the lowest low tide.
20. These animals can produce clones of themselves.

DOWN

1. Mussels produce strong _____ threads to attach to rocks.
2. A _____ is a line across an area to be sampled, marked by a tape measurer.
3. Coating that fucus (flattened rockweed) use to prevent desiccation.
4. The 2 types of brown algae that LiMPETS monitors are slender rockweed and _____ rockweed.
7. This large, green anemone has radiating lines on the oral disk.
8. There are three groups of algae: green, brown and _____.
11. You must always check turban snail shells for _____.
13. Coralline algae are found as either upright or _____.
16. The type of seaweed commonly used in sushi.